PART I · FOR INVESTORS AND PARTNERS

The Investment

Golf is the business.
Cádiz is the multiplier.

Patiño Resorts Arcos and Valderrama Investments SA aim to revive the Arcos Gardens resort, in Arcos de la Frontera, and make it one of Europe's very best, with the golf course as the driving force of its recovery and success.

OLD OLIVE TREES ON THE ESTATE

One of Europe's very best

Based on the experience of Felipe Ortiz-Patiño, former Vice President and President of Valderrama Golf Club, one of the most prestigious golf courses in Continental Europe and host to numerous major international golf championships, such as the 1997 Ryder Cup or the 1999 and 2000 World Golf Championships, as well as numerous editions of the Volvo Masters, which closed the European Tour season, the objective of Patiño Resorts Arcos and Valderrama Investments SA is to revive and develop a resort called Arcos Gardens, located in the municipality of Arcos de la Frontera in the province of Cádiz, and make it one of Europe's very best.

Arcos Gardens, a resort and golf course designed by the American company Landmark, was chosen because of the quality and the design of the golf course, which allows it, with adjustments and upgrades, to become one of Europe's very best and act as the driving force in the recovery and success of the resort.

Although it was one of Spain's best courses between 2010 and 2015, the course was never a "must play" course, and so it never became a tourist attraction in the way Sotogrande or Valderrama did.

The management of the project will be in the hands of Mr Felipe Ortiz-Patiño who, for more than 20 years, together with his father Mr Jaime Ortiz-Patiño, was one of the main driving forces behind the creation of Valderrama, leading this course to be ranked number one in Continental Europe and to host the world's most prestigious golf events since 1988.

Valderrama Investments SA, a company owned by Mr Felipe Ortiz-Patiño, will be the official consultant, so that in fact this project will directly and indirectly combine the names Patiño and Valderrama.

03 THE CORE ASSET · THE COURSE

On the course

Eighteen holes among old olive trees, with wide, rolling fairways that follow the natural relief of the land. And on the horizon, the white town of Arcos de la Frontera.

The course was designed by Chris Cole and Jeff Potts, of the American company Landmark. It is the only championship course in the Sierra de Cádiz, with wide, rolling fairways that follow the natural relief of the land and views over the lake.

PRACTICE

Driving range, pitching and bunker area, two putting greens and three chipping greens. Buggies and clubhouse on site.

A “must play” course

01

Based on this assessment, the first objective is not only to restore but to noticeably upgrade the existing golf course so it can become a true source of revenue and a top-tier tourist product.

We are convinced that, with an appropriate renovation and redesign programme combined with a substantial increase in the quality of its maintenance, the golf course can not only recover its former position among the Top 100 golf courses in Continental Europe (No. 88 in 2015), but position itself among the very best in Spain and the top 30 in Continental Europe, and become a “must play” course and a venue for major professional events, like nearby Valderrama.

02

The second objective is to equal the quality benchmark set by Valderrama in terms of service and maintenance, and to create one of Europe’s most coveted and prestigious clubs and destinations.

With the prestige and expertise of the new ownership and that of Kyle Phillips, the world-renowned architect who has been selected to redesign and upgrade the course, this objective is more than achievable.

06 HOSPITALITY · THE CORTIJO

An Andalusian cortijo at the heart of the resort

THE COURTYARD

Early 20th century, on 19th-century foundations

Completing the resort's inventory is an early 20th-century Andalusian cortijo with foundations dating back to the 19th century. The building, which was operated as a small hotel, comprises ten rooms, a restaurant, lounges, a patio, two terraces, a swimming pool and sports facilities.

The hotel offering was increased by the use of existing homes and villas, allowing for an additional 5–10 rooms beyond those of the cortijo itself. Moreover, with its large gardens, the cortijo offers excellent conditions for hosting social events.

EXPANDING THE OFFER

As a complement to all the activities that can be carried out on site, we plan to expand the offer of the resort with:

i. Horseback riding

ii. Shooting

iii. Hiking

iv. Spa and wellness, in a newly built facility

v. Lake and seaside activities, on the shore of Lake Arcos and later at one of the nearby beaches of Sanlúcar, Rota, Chipiona or El Puerto de Santa María

The goal is to have a global and complete offer, making Patiño Resorts Arcos a modern destination for a large variety of users.

The whole resort

The revival of tourism and sport is what will bring its real estate back to life.

The vision of recovering and repositioning the resort is not limited to golf and hospitality: it also embraces the entire residential development.

Around 80% of the roads and infrastructure are already built, and the residential plan allows for 64,259 square metres of homes, in up to 412 units. The infrastructure is of the highest quality and provides all services, and the homes already built are fully in keeping with the repositioning and rebranding of the resort.

The resort also includes a 28,847 square-metre hotel plot, with building rights for 6,700 square metres of floor space (potentially 7,700). This opens the way to a brand-new five-star hotel and, if so decided, an extension to the cortijo with a wellbeing, relaxation and spa unit.

08 PROJECT ENVIRONMENT

The location

ARCOS DE LA FRONTERA

Between three worlds

The Atlantic coast, the Cádiz countryside and the mountains.

In addition to the quality and potential of the golf course and that of the entire resort, great consideration has been given to Arcos de la Frontera and its location within the province of Cádiz. The province has been classified by The New York Times as one of the 52 most attractive destinations in the world.

Arcos, a town of 31,267 inhabitants (in 2025), was first a Roman post, "Colonia Arcensis", later a Moorish fortified town, "Medina Ar-Kosch", and finally, from 1250 onwards, a Spanish town. It has various historical monuments and is considered one of Spain's most beautiful and picturesque towns.

ARCOS IS SURROUNDED BY NUMEROUS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

01 Within 30 minutes, the Sierra de Cádiz, with the route of the "Pueblos Blancos", which features numerous tourist and natural resources.

02 Arcos Lake, a reservoir spanning over 100 hectares (250 acres), which offers water skiing, wakeboarding, kayaking and other water sports.

03 Jerez de la Frontera, a city internationally known for, amongst other things, its horses, its wineries and its outstanding gastronomic offer.

04 Sanlúcar, Rota, Chipiona and El Puerto de Santa María, and their magnificent clear sand beaches along the Atlantic Ocean shore.

05 Cádiz, one of Spain's most beautiful cities, founded by the Phoenicians and provincial capital, which offers a first-class cruise port and is also a fashionable destination.

06 Seville, one of the most historically rich cities in Europe which, in addition to its parks and numerous historical monuments, offers fine restaurants and shopping.

Golf, motor sport, gastronomy and nature

07 The Jerez Speed Circuit, only 25 kilometres away. It hosted 7 Formula 1 Grands Prix from 1986 until 1997, as well as the Spanish MotoGP from 1987 to the present day. Many major car manufacturers and motor racing teams, including Formula 1, do pre-season testing there. A racing academy will be created so that residents and clients can enjoy a safe track experience.

08 The San Roque–Alcaidesa region (one of Europe's best golfing destinations), with its five-star hotels and its mythical courses (Valderrama and Sotogrande), is only 115 kilometres away.

09 Aponiente (3 Michelin stars) and Lú (2 Michelin stars), two of Spain's best restaurants, are 47 and 32 kilometres away respectively.

10 Marbella: via the Jerez–Los Barrios motorway (A-381) or via Ronda, it is possible to reach Arcos in less than two hours.

11 Major natural parks, namely Los Alcornocales (less than 30 km), the Sierra de Grazalema (38 km) and the UNESCO natural park of Doñana.

12 Many wineries, all within a radius of 50 kilometres, including Bodegas Tesalia and Campestral, both less than 5 kilometres from the resort.

The province of Cádiz: one of the 52 most attractive destinations in the world, according to The New York Times.

An extremely well-connected town

Arcos can be accessed by motorway from Seville (AP-4), Jerez (A-382), Cádiz and the Atlantic coast (AP-4), and the Costa del Sol, Marbella and Sotogrande (A-381), which makes Arcos de la Frontera an extremely well-connected town.

From the Sierra (mountain ridge), access is available both from Ronda and from Campillos (province of Málaga).

Jerez has a major railway station, with numerous connections to Madrid. The Alvia high-speed trains put the capital 3 hours 50 minutes from Jerez.

Arcos is located close to four international airports, all within a radius of 220 kilometres.

A · JEREZ DE LA FRONTERA — 27 min

Only 27 minutes from Arcos by motorway. Direct flights to Madrid, Barcelona and other Spanish cities, as well as some direct flights to different European countries, especially during the summer.

C · GIBRALTAR — 1 h

About one hour from Arcos.

D · MÁLAGA — 220 km

THE PROPOSAL · A NEW POSITIONING

Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts should not compete exclusively with other golf resorts. Its competitive advantage is broader. It offers access to golf, the Atlantic, Doñana, the mountains, wine, gastronomy, history and Andalusian culture, all from one place.

The real strength of Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts appears when the stay becomes longer. A guest can spend fourteen days here without repeating the same experience. And every evening, they come home to Arcos Golf.

PART II · FOR GUESTS AND GOLFERS

The Experience

One destination. A different Andalucía every day.

ARCOS DE LA FRONTERA AT DUSK

THE GUADALETE VALLEY AND ARCOS LAKE

01 A DIFFERENT WAY TO EXPERIENCE ANDALUCÍA

There are places you visit. And there are places from which you can discover an entire region. Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts is one of them.

Set beside Arcos de la Frontera, between the Atlantic Ocean and the mountains of Cádiz, Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts offers something increasingly difficult to find: space, tranquillity and nature without giving up access to extraordinary experiences.

Here, golf is only the beginning. From Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts, every day can be different. One morning can begin on the golf course and end watching the sun disappear into the Atlantic. Another can take you through vineyards and historic bodegas in Jerez. Another into the mountains and white villages of Grazalema. And another across the Guadalquivir into the extraordinary landscapes of Doñana.

One destination. A different Andalucía every day.

THE BASILICA OF SANTA MARÍA

02 YOUR ANDALUSIAN HOME

Arcos de la Frontera

Arcos de la Frontera rises dramatically above the River Guadalete. Its white houses, narrow streets, churches, palaces and viewpoints form one of the most recognisable landscapes of inland Cádiz.

The historic centre preserves the urban character inherited from its Arab past and contains landmarks such as the Plaza del Cabildo, the Ducal Castle and the Basilica of Santa María.

But Arcos is not simply beautiful. Its geographical position is what makes it exceptional. It sits between three worlds: the Atlantic coast, the Cádiz countryside and the mountains. This makes it a natural base from which to discover the province.

THE OLD TOWN

MORE TO DISCOVER

The old town stands on a sandstone ridge, and from the viewpoint beside the Plaza del Cabildo the land falls away sharply to the river: a wide panorama of the Guadalete valley, the lake and the countryside that surrounds the resort.

Walking the upper town at dusk, when the stone of Santa María turns golden and the streets empty, is one of the simplest pleasures of a stay here, and it is only minutes from the resort.

ON THE COURSE

03 GOLF

Where every journey begins

At the centre of all these experiences remains golf. But the philosophy is different.

Guests should not have to choose between a golf holiday and discovering Andalucía. They can have both: eighteen holes in the morning, and in the afternoon Jerez, Cádiz, the mountains, a vineyard or Arcos. Or simply stay at the resort.

THE COURSE

18 holes designed by Chris Cole and Jeff Potts. The only championship course in the Sierra de Cádiz, with wide, rolling fairways that follow the natural relief of the land and views over the lake.

03 NATURE NEXT DOOR

Arcos Lake

Some experiences require no day trip at all.

The reservoir beside Arcos offers another dimension to the destination. It allows guests to combine golf and water activities without leaving the Arcos environment.

The lake spans over 100 hectares, with water skiing, wakeboarding, kayaking and other water sports, as well as paddle sports, birdwatching, walking and sunsets.

The lake is formed by the River Guadalete just below the town. Its calm water and reed-lined shores make it a natural setting for an early paddle before golf, or for a slow walk at the end of the day, when the light turns pink over the water and the silhouette of Arcos appears on its cliff.

THE CENTRAL MARKET

CÁDIZ · MORE TO DISCOVER

Three thousand years by the sea

Founded by the Phoenicians as Gadir some three thousand years ago, Cádiz is often described as the oldest continuously inhabited city in Western Europe. Its old town sits almost entirely surrounded by water, joined to the mainland by a narrow strip of land.

The Central Market is the place to begin the morning; the Torre Tavira, one of the old merchants' watchtowers, offers a view over the rooftops.

La Caleta, the small beach between the castles of Santa Catalina and San Sebastián, is where the city gathers to watch the sun go down.

THE GUADALETE AT EL PUERTO

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

El Puerto de Santa María

Sherry, seafood & the bay.

Across the bay from Cádiz, where the River Guadalete meets the Atlantic, El Puerto de Santa María brings together three of the great pleasures of the province: sherry, seafood and the sea.

El Puerto is one of the three towns of the sherry triangle, with historic bodegas in the heart of its old town. Its riverside, its castle and its beaches allow a single day to move naturally from culture to the coast.

PERFECT FOR

BODEGAS · CASTILLO DE SAN MARCOS · SEAFOOD BY THE RIVER · BEACHES · SUNSET OVER THE BAY

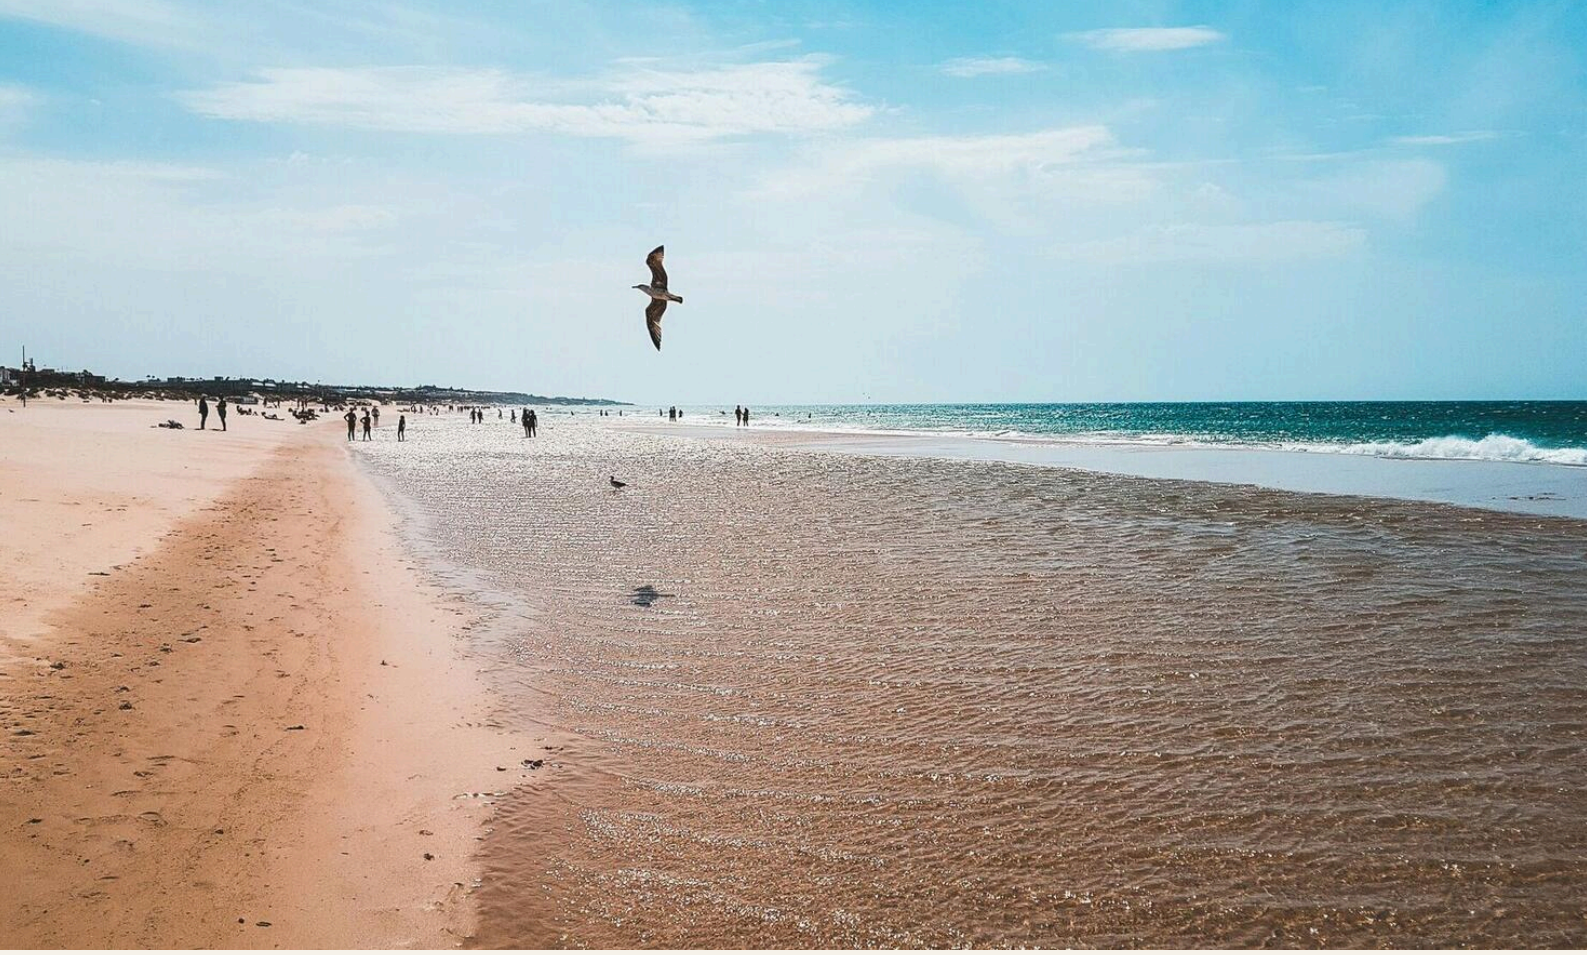

THE EXPERIENCE

Bodega → Seafood → Beach → Sunset

MORE TO DISCOVER

Seafood here is a ritual: bought by weight from the counters along the river and eaten simply, with a glass of fino. The Castillo de San Marcos, in the centre of town, is one of the landmarks of El Puerto.

A catamaran links El Puerto with Cádiz across the bay, an easy way to combine both in the same day.

LA BARROSA

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Sancti Petri & La Barrosa

Sophisticated Atlantic living.

La Barrosa represents a different interpretation of the Cádiz coast. Wide beaches, restaurants, beach clubs and water sports make it particularly attractive for families and international visitors.

Nearby Sancti Petri adds sailing, maritime landscapes and spectacular sunsets.

PERFECT FOR

BEACH DAYS · FAMILIES · SAILING · LUNCH BY THE SEA · SUNSET DRINKS

MORE TO DISCOVER

The castle of Sancti Petri stands on a small island at the mouth of the channel of the same name; tradition places here the ancient temple of Hercules that sailors once visited before crossing the Strait. Seen from the beach at sunset, its silhouette is one of the most photographed images of the coast.

PINES ABOVE EL PALMAR

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Conil & El Palmar

The relaxed Atlantic. Here Cádiz becomes informal.

Conil combines a traditional white coastal town with extensive beaches.

A little further south, El Palmar offers one of the most relaxed beach environments on the Atlantic coast.

PERFECT FOR

SURFING · BAREFOOT LUNCHES · BEACH BARS · MUSIC · SUNSETS

THE EXPERIENCE

CONIL

MORE TO DISCOVER

Conil grew around its medieval tower and its fishing tradition, and it keeps both: whitewashed streets above the beach and a harbour that still supplies the town's restaurants.

El Palmar is one of the favourite surf beaches of Andalucía, a long open shore backed by pines where the day naturally ends looking west over the ocean.

VEJER DE LA FRONTERA

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Vejer de la Frontera

The white village overlooking Africa.

Vejer rises above the Atlantic landscape. Its whitewashed houses, courtyards and narrow streets make it one of the most attractive villages in Cádiz.

The perfect combination is simple.

VEJER + EL PALMAR

MORE TO DISCOVER

Vejer keeps much of its old walled layout, with gateways, steep lanes and a tiled fountain in its main square. From the top of the village, on clear days, the view reaches the coast of Africa.

ZAHARA AT DUSK

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Zahara de los Atunes

Beach & gastronomy.

Zahara represents another side of Cádiz. More sophisticated. More gastronomic. More exclusive.

Its enormous Atlantic beach combines with one of the great gastronomic traditions of the province: almadraba bluefin tuna. A day in Zahara can become one of the premium experiences offered by Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts.

THE TUNA MONUMENT

BLUEFIN TUNA

THE EXPERIENCE

Beach → Tuna → Sunset → Dinner

MORE TO DISCOVER

The almadraba is a centuries-old way of fishing bluefin tuna with fixed nets as the fish pass along the coast each spring. The village takes its name from this tradition, and the remains of its old almadraba castle still stand beside the beach.

Late spring, when the tuna season is under way, is the moment when Zahara's kitchens are at their best.

BOLONIA

05 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Bolonia

Where Rome meets the Atlantic.

One of the most extraordinary landscapes in southern Spain. An enormous beach. A spectacular dune. And beside the sea, the archaeological site of Baelo Claudia.

Few destinations allow visitors to move so naturally between archaeology and an almost untouched Atlantic landscape.

THE EXPERIENCE

History + Nature + Beach

THE DUNE

MORE TO DISCOVER

Baelo Claudia was a Roman town that prospered from fishing and salted-fish production; its forum, temples, theatre and fish-salting workshops can still be walked through, a few steps from the sand.

At the western end of the bay, the great dune of Bolonia rises more than thirty metres above the pines and is protected as a Natural Monument.

Across the Strait. A day trip to Morocco from Tarifa, there and back in a single day.

MORE TO DISCOVER

Tarifa is the southernmost point of continental Europe. At its narrowest the Strait of Gibraltar is only around fourteen kilometres wide, and the mountains of Morocco often seem close enough to touch.

The constant wind that made it a world capital of kitesurfing also shapes its character; the old town, with the castle of Guzmán el Bueno, keeps a quieter rhythm behind its walls. Whale and dolphin watching trips leave from the harbour, as do the ferries to Tangier.

THE DUNES OF DOÑANA

06 BEYOND THE RIVER

Doñana

Into the wild.

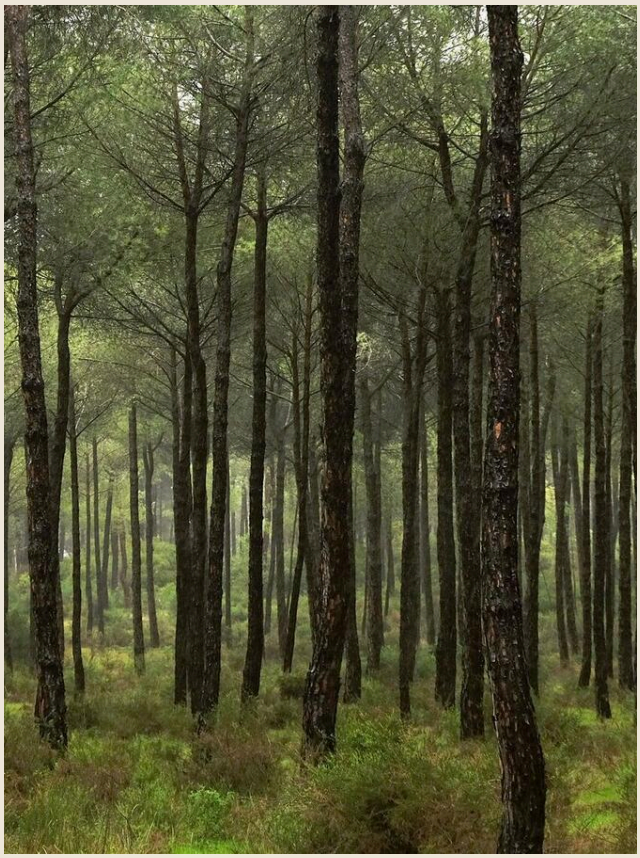

Doñana is one of the great nature experiences of southern Europe. And from Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts there is a particularly attractive gateway: Sanlúcar de Barrameda.

From Sanlúcar, visitors can experience the Guadalquivir and discover the landscapes of Doñana through organised itineraries. The contrast is extraordinary. Leave the golf course in Arcos. Reach Sanlúcar. Cross the Guadalquivir. And enter one of Europe's most celebrated natural environments.

Marshes, moving dunes and stone-pine forests

Doñana was declared a National Park in 1969 and a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1994. Its marshes, moving dunes and stone-pine forests shelter some of Europe's rarest species, among them the Iberian lynx and the Spanish imperial eagle, and hundreds of thousands of migrating birds each year.

Boat trips leave from Bajo de Guía and cross the river to the park, the most natural way to reach it from the Cádiz side.

SUNSET AT THE MOUTH OF THE GUADALQUIVIR

06 TOWARDS THE ATLANTIC

Sanlúcar de Barrameda

Manzanilla, seafood & the Guadalquivir.

Sanlúcar deserves much more than being considered simply the gateway to Doñana. It is one of Cádiz's great gastronomic destinations: Bajo de Guía, the Guadalquivir, manzanilla, seafood and langostinos. And Doñana visible on the opposite bank.

THE PERFECT DAY

Doñana in the morning.
Lunch at Bajo de Guía.
Manzanilla in the afternoon.

MORE TO DISCOVER

Manzanilla, the pale and delicate sherry of Sanlúcar, can only be aged here, where the sea air at the mouth of the river shapes its character in the bodegas of the town.

Every August, since the nineteenth century, horse races are run along the beach at low tide, with Doñana as a backdrop.

07 A SHORT JOURNEY

The other Cádiz

Leave the Atlantic behind and another landscape appears. Mountains. Forests. White villages. Walking trails. Quiet roads. Traditional restaurants.

The Sierra de Grazalema provides an extraordinary counterpoint to the beaches of Cádiz.

An ideal day for hiking, cycling, photography or simply discovering rural Andalucía.

OLIVE GROVES OF THE SIERRA, NEAR OLVERA

MORE TO DISCOVER

The Sierra de Grazalema was the first Biosphere Reserve declared in Spain, in 1977, and is now a Natural Park. Its limestone peaks catch the Atlantic clouds, which makes it one of the rainiest corners of the country and explains its green valleys.

On its northern slopes grows the pinsapo, a rare Spanish fir that survives in only a few mountains of southern Andalucía.

07 THE RUTA DE LOS PUEBLOS BLANCOS

The White Villages

Arcos Golf by Patiño Resorts stands at the gateway to one of Andalucía's most famous landscapes. Each village offers a different character. The experience can be customised from a half-day drive to a complete day through the mountains.

GRAZALEMA

MORE TO DISCOVER

Arcos itself is traditionally counted among the white villages, so the route begins at the resort's door. Zahara de la Sierra, crowned by the tower of its old castle above a turquoise reservoir, is one of the most photographed stops; Ubrique has made leather goods for generations.

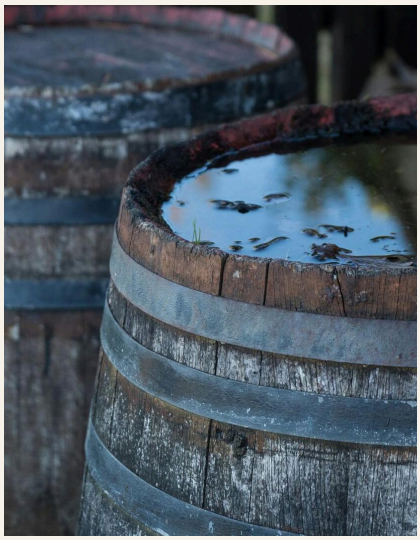

08 A SHORT JOURNEY

Jerez

Sherry. Horses. Flamenco.

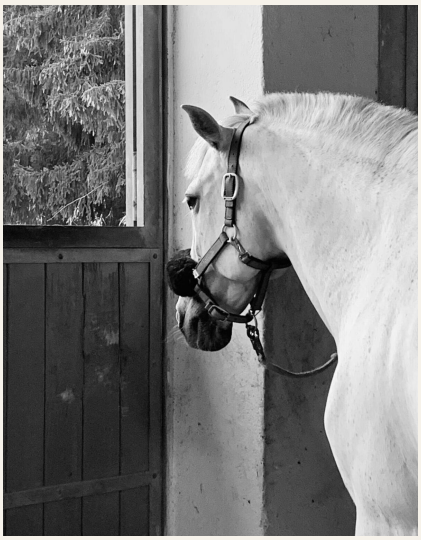

Few cities have created three cultural identities recognised around the world. Jerez has.

One of the strongest premium excursions

SHERRY

Centuries-old bodegas and some of the world's most distinctive wines. Fino, amontillado, oloroso: each ages in oak casks through the solera system, and each owes something to the white albariza soils of the vineyards around the city.

HORSES

The tradition of the Andalusian horse. In Jerez it has a home of its own: the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art, where horses and riders perform a choreography of classical dressage.

FLAMENCO

One of the historic centres of flamenco culture. The city has given the art some of its greatest voices, and the bulería of Jerez is recognised as a style of its own.

THE JEREZ EXPERIENCE

Private bodega visit → Sherry tasting → Lunch → Equestrian experience → Flamenco → Return to Arcos Golf

MORE TO DISCOVER

Beyond its three great identities, Jerez is a city to walk: the Moorish Alcázar and its gardens, the cathedral rising above the old town, and streets lined with palaces and bodegas whose names are known around the world.

Wine Country

The countryside surrounding Arcos is also developing its own wine identity.

Boutique vineyards and wineries create opportunities for much more intimate experiences.

For guests seeking privacy and authenticity, these experiences can become particularly valuable.

A TASTING AMONG THE VINES

MORE TO DISCOVER

Alongside the sherry tradition, the Cádiz countryside produces still red and white wines from small estates. Visiting them is a very different experience from the great bodegas of Jerez: fewer people, the winemaker at the table, and the vines just outside the door.

CORK OAK FOREST

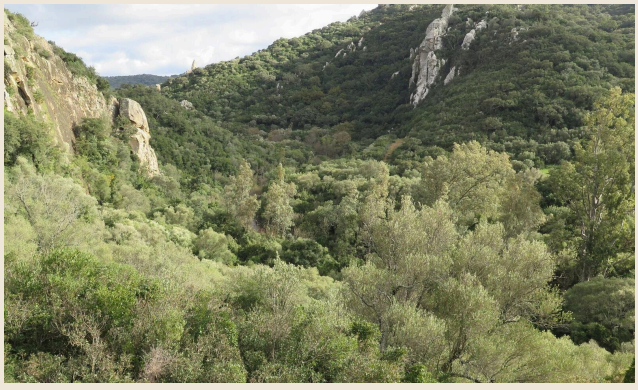

09 THE WILD SIDE

Los Alcornocales

Europe's great cork forest.

The Parque Natural de Los Alcornocales introduces yet another landscape. Large cork oak forests, deep valleys and extraordinary biodiversity create opportunities for hiking, birdwatching, cycling, nature photography and guided ecological experiences.

It represents the wild side of Cádiz.

LOS ALCORNOCALES

MORE TO DISCOVER

Los Alcornocales holds one of the largest cork oak forests in Europe. In its narrow, humid valleys, known locally as canutos, survive fragments of an ancient subtropical woodland of laurels, ferns and rhododendrons.

Cork is still harvested here by hand, stripping the bark from each tree only every nine years or so without harming it.

Seven days.
Seven experiences.

Golf runs through the week. Every itinerary can be shaped around the guest.
